Props for dance: Racing forms. Parasols for the ladies.

If this is done with 2 lines of people, then the people in the "back" line should do a rocking chair in place of the slow pivots. The "front" line should point to their racing forms as they face the back row.

As singers exclaim "Twinkletoes?!" stand upright, shrug shoulders with hands lifted, palms extended outwards, then slow strut off floor to right, starting with R foot (tossing racing forms to ground or in trash can).
